

Tentative Schedule

2025 ACSR Annual Conference
March 17 – March 20, 2025

Keynote presentation: The Chad Daybell–Lori Vallow Triple Murder Investigation

Presentations:

- Crime Scene Reconstruction of a Double Homicide
- Determining if a case is a Homicide or Suicide?
- Clackamas Town Center Mass Shooting
- CSR through Forensic Chemistry and Physics
- Details matter in a Reconstruction!
- Emotional Wellness for CSI's
- DNA Collection from Fired Casings
- Mass Casualty Responses
- Virtual Investigation Unit (VR Forensics!)
- Teaching Reconstruction Techniques in Higher Education
- The Impact of Artificial Intelligence on CSR
- Cold Case Investigations at CSR
- PhotoGunMetry

Do you have a case, topic or workshop to present?
Let us know!

visit www.acsr.org to register!

Tentative Schedule

2025 ACSR Annual Conference
March 17 – March 20, 2025

Workshops:

- Evaluation of the Sounds of Gunfire Captured on Recording Devices
- Less Lethal Munitions Examinations
- Ejection Pattern Error and Limitations
- Documenting, Collecting and Evaluation of Footwear Evidence
- Documenting, Collecting and Evaluation of Entomology Evidence
- Reconstructing a Scene Together – led by Tom Bevel

Expert Testimony Panel Discussion – Tips, Tricks and Gotcha's!

The Last Piece Society – share interesting or unexplained cases with the group

The conference will begin at 8am daily and conclude at 5pm. Coffee and pastries will be served daily with the annual Banquet on Wednesday evening!

visit www.acsr.org to register!

