

About Speaker Steve Spangler...

Steve Spangler is a teacher, science toy designer, speaker, author and an Emmy award-winning television personality. He holds a Guinness World Record for the Largest Science Lesson. Over 5,000 people doing a hands-on science demonstration all at the same time. Over the last 20 years he has made hundreds of television appearances as an authority on hands-on science and inquiry based learning. Recently, Spangler has been featured in the Wall Street Journal, Inc. Magazine, WIRED, the History Channel, Food Network and TIME Magazine where on-line readers voted Steve Spangler #18 in the Top 100 Most Influential People of the Year for 2006. His recent appearances on the Ellen DeGeneres Show have taught viewers how to blow up their food, shock their friends, create mountains of foam, play on a bed of nails, vanish in a cloud of smoke and how to turn 2,500 boxes of cornstarch and a garden hose into a swimming pool of fun... and he's been invited back for yet another season... go figure.
